

1) Jesus is pointing out the stark contrast between God's own _____ in the redemption of sinners and the Pharisees' _____ toward those same sinners.

2) A _____ is a simple _____ communicated in story form. It is mainly a _____.

3) The Scribes and Pharisees were the leaders of the religion of the One and only True God. Yet they were so far off in what they were doing because they had gotten sidetracked and confused about their _____ and _____.

4) The idea that God would _____ accept and forgive repentant _____ was a shocking and revolutionary _____ to them.

5) God has always, and will always use _____ in reaching _____. We _____ do it without Him. But often He will not do it _____.

6) The Pharisees' _____, and lack of compassion for the lost was an insult to God. It was _____ of the highest order.

7) I want to join in heaven's joy in seeking and saving the lost.

YES NO

Scriptures: Matthew 13:34-35; Luke 15:1-32; Luke 9:51; Luke 11:54; 2 Timothy 3:2; Luke 19:10

Part 1: The Parable

1) Jesus is pointing out the stark contrast between God's own _____ in the redemption of sinners and the Pharisees' _____ toward those same sinners.

2) A _____ is a simple _____ communicated in story form. It is mainly a _____.

3) The Scribes and Pharisees were the leaders of the religion of the One and only True God. Yet they were so far off in what they were doing because they had gotten sidetracked and confused about their _____ and _____.

4) The idea that God would _____ accept and forgive repentant _____ was a shocking and revolutionary _____ to them.

5) God has always, and will always use _____ in reaching _____. We _____ do it without Him. But often He will not do it _____.

6) The Pharisees' _____, and lack of compassion for the lost was an insult to God. It was _____ of the highest order.

7) I want to join in heaven's joy in seeking and saving the lost.

YES NO

Scriptures: Matthew 13:34-35; Luke 15:1-32; Luke 9:51; Luke 11:54; 2 Timothy 3:2; Luke 19:10

Part 1: The Parable