

- 1) The four enemies of the heart are: _____, _____, _____, and _____.
- 2) Guilt says, “I _____ you.”
- 3) _____ exposes our secrets and frees the heart from the oppressive power of guilt.
- 4) In our English dictionaries, the definition of _____ is to admit or acknowledge something, but in Scripture, _____ is associated with _____.
- 5) _____ can never be offered as a substitute for _____. It is a first step towards it.
- 6) You cannot _____ your _____ with God if you are unwilling to _____ your differences with others.
- 7) God’s _____ does not erase our need to take _____ for what we have done.
- 8) Heart Habit # 1 -- Guilt says, “I owe you,” and the cure for guilt is _____.
- 9) This week I will commit to asking God is there is something I need to make right with someone else, and if God reveals something to me I will follow through. YES or NO

Scripture references: Psalm 32:5; Luke 6:45; 1 John 1:9; Numbers 5:6-7; Luke 19:8-9; Matthew 5:23-24; GC619-621

- 1) The four enemies of the heart are: _____, _____, _____, and _____.
- 2) Guilt says, “I _____ you.”
- 3) _____ exposes our secrets and frees the heart from the oppressive power of guilt.
- 4) In our English dictionaries, the definition of _____ is to admit or acknowledge something, but in Scripture, _____ is associated with _____.
- 5) _____ can never be offered as a substitute for _____. It is a first step towards it.
- 6) You cannot _____ your _____ with God if you are unwilling to _____ your differences with others.
- 7) God’s _____ does not erase our need to take _____ for what we have done.
- 8) Heart Habit # 1 -- Guilt says, “I owe you,” and the cure for guilt is _____.
- 9) This week I will commit to asking God is there is something I need to make right with someone else, and if God reveals something to me I will follow through. YES or NO

Scripture references: Psalm 32:5; Luke 6:45; 1 John 1:9; Numbers 5:6-7; Luke 19:8-9; Matthew 5:23-24; GC619-621