

- 1) The _____ was willing to give his all, even his _____.
- 2) To the _____, the prodigal was beyond _____.
- 3) In _____, we never rise as _____ as we were expecting to, while, in _____, we always go _____ than we had foreseen.”
- 4) Some people think of _____ as an illegitimate use of _____. But _____ kills _____.
- 5) Remember that _____ involves leaving the _____. So naturally, to turn away from _____ will involve _____ to the father.
- 6) True _____ has no _____, asks for no special _____ or _____, and makes no _____.

I want to come to the Father today _____

Scriptures: Psalm 51:1-2; Luke 15:11-21; 1 Kings 21:3; Romans 6:23; John 8:34; Luke 18:9; Matthew 4:17

Part 2: The Prodigal

- 1) The _____ was willing to give his all, even his _____.
- 2) To the _____, the prodigal was beyond _____.
- 3) In _____, we never rise as _____ as we were expecting to, while, in _____, we always go _____ than we had foreseen.”
- 4) Some people think of _____ as an illegitimate use of _____. But _____ kills _____.
- 5) Remember that _____ involves leaving the _____. So naturally, to turn away from _____ will involve _____ to the father.
- 6) True _____ has no _____, asks for no special _____ or _____, and makes no _____.

7) I want to come home to the Father today _____

I want to come to the Father today _____

Scriptures: Psalm 51:1-2; Luke 15:11-21; 1 Kings 21:3; Romans 6:23; John 8:34; Luke 18:9; Matthew 4:17

Part 2: The Prodigal